GUIDELINES FOR ADMISSION TO M.PHIL./ PH.D. COURSES 2014.

I PREPARATION OF THE MERIT LISTS:

1. The merit list of all the eligible candidates shall be prepared as follows. The merit of the candidates who have passed the entrance test shall be determined considering 50% of the weightage for marks obtained at the qualifying examination and 50% weightage for the entrance test. For determining the merit of the candidates exempted from entrance test (NET/SET/GATE/JRF/M.Phil. pass) only the marks obtained at the qualifying examinations shall be considered.
2. Two separate merit lists shall be prepared; one for the students covered under the 371(j) [those who have claimed reservation under 371(j) shall only be considered subject to the condition that they shall produce the certificate issued by the competent authority latest by the time of taking admission]; another list for the students those who are not covered under 371(j).
3. Another separate list of the candidates shall be prepared for the candidates who have applied under FIP/QIP/Sponsored quota and working under the funded projects.
4. All the eligible candidates shall be called for the interview before the Departmental Council. The Chairperson shall arrange to intimate the students regarding the date of the interview and give clear instructions for making a presentation regarding the research interest of the candidate. A reasonable time shall be given (at least one week) to the candidates from the date of intimation.
5. At the time of interview the original certificates of the candidates shall be verified.

II SELECTION OF THE CANDIDATES:

1. Before the selection process, the DC shall confirm the vacancy position. The vacancy position shall be as submitted by the Chairperson to the Office at the time of Notification. The vacancy position under each guide shall be prepared as per the regulations governing the Ph.D./ M.Phil. admissions, ensuring at least One SC/ST and one teacher from affiliated colleges per guide.
2. The available vacancies shall be filled as per the provisions of article 371 (j) – 70% of the seats shall be reserved for candidates covered under 371 (j) and the remaining 30% of the seats shall be reserved for the non-371(j) candidates.

3. However, if any seats remain vacant for the non-availability of eligible candidates under the non-371(j) category, the same may be filled by taking the candidates from 371 (j) category.
4. After completion of the interview process, the Departmental Council shall prepare the provisional selected candidates based on the merit and performance of the candidate at the interview.
5. The candidates working under the funded projects and those coming under FIP/QIP programme and the candidates sponsored by the Government shall be directly admitted irrespective of their merit; however, they shall fulfill the minimum prescribed eligibility.
6. The list thus prepared shall also include the allotment of the student to a guide. The allotment of the guide shall be done by the Departmental Council and not left to the student or Teacher alone.
7. If a candidate has applied for both M.Phil and Ph.D., he may appear for the interview, and during the interview his willingness either for M.Phil or Ph.D. shall be obtained.
8. The merit list of the candidates and the provisionally selected list of the candidates shall be got approved from the respective Dean of the faculty and submitted to the Registrar's Office for placing before the Doctoral Committee for final approval.
9. The calendar of the Events as notified shall be strictly adhered to.
